Junction Place
731 Runnymede Rd, Toronto, ON

DESCRIPTION

Junction Place is a City of Toronto shelter for men experiencing homelessness. The shelter offers 24/7 service including housing, mental health and addiction supports, income and employment assistance, and recreation services. Fox transformed this space that was once a second-hand store into a safe haven for people experiencing homelessness in the city.

The scope of work for this renovation included:

- New dorm-style bedrooms with storage lockers
- Fully equipped wellness area
- Upgraded kitchen and food service area
- New washrooms with showers
- Improved offices and staff lounge areas
- Enhanced security system
- Raised garden beds and patio to enjoy in the summer months
